2. Processing of Personal Data

What data is processed?

First name, surname, company, license plate number if applicable, arrival/departure time, date, signature

Where does the data come from?

We collect the data directly from the data subject by means of the corresponding entry in the visitor registration form.

What is the data processed for and on what legal basis is this done?

When visiting our site, visitors are asked to fill in the visitor registration form, which is then stored in the visitor book. We process this data to ensure security at our site, in particular information security in accordance with our ISMS. The legal basis for this is our legitimate interest pursuant to Art. 6 para. 1 lit. f GDPR in the security of our location and the protection of domiciliary rights.

Are there other recipients of the personal data in addition to the responsible legal entity?

Your personal data will only be passed on if this is required by law or is necessary to fulfill the legitimate interest.

How long will the data be stored?

We only store your personal data for as long as it is necessary for the purpose for which it was collected or for as long as legal requirements, e.g. from commercial or tax law, stipulate storage.

3. Your rights as a person concerned

Right to information: You have the right to receive information about the personal data we have stored about you. (Art. 15 GDPR)

Right of correction and deletion: You can request the correction of incorrect data and - if the legal requirements are met - the deletion of your data. (Art. 16 and 17 GDPR)

Right to restriction of processing: If the legal requirements are met, you can request that we restrict the processing of your data. (Art. 18 GDPR)

Recht auf Datenübertragbarkeit: In the event that you have provided us with your data on the basis of a contract or consent, you can request that you receive the data you have provided in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format or that we transfer it to a third party if the legal requirements are met. (Art. 20 GDPR)

Right of objection: You have the right to object, on grounds relating to your particular situation, at any time to the processing of your personal data by us, insofar as this is based on the protection of our legitimate interests. If you exercise your right to object, we will no longer process your personal data unless we can demonstrate compelling legitimate grounds for further processing which override your interests, rights and freedoms. (Art. 21 para. 1 GDPR).

Right of complaint: If you believe that the processing of your personal data violates data protection law, you can lodge a complaint with the competent supervisory authority (Art. 77 para. 1 GDPR).
